

Assault On Women Is Reprehensible: Women Wing, MQM USA The Swat Incident Has Maligned Pakistan And Islam In the Whole World.

Media Cell MQM USA; New York; April 05, 2009: In an emergency telephonic conference held by Women Wing MQM USA and attended by MQM USA, Khalida Shuja, In charge, Women Wing, MQM USA, has said that the Swat incident is in sheer antagonism not only to the teachings of Islam, it is also against civic values and the values of the modern society. She said that the flogging of a teenage girl in public is not only an assault on a woman it also tantamount to molestation of an underage girl. It is also equal to tearing the modesty apart of a modest girl, she added. The Incharge Women Wing also said that this barbaric act under the cover of false interpretation of the Islamic teachings, has maligned Pakistan and Islam throughout the world. She said that the women have awakened worldwide and any such types of incident are intolerable. She moved a resolution of condemnation against the Swat incident which was approved and seconded by the members of Women Wing MQM USA and other participants of the conference.