

Thirty Jiye Sindh Quami Mahaz (JSQM) Workers Join Muttahida Quami Movement.

Karachi August 17, 2007: 30 workers of Jiye Sindh Quami Mahaz (JSQM) poised their confidence in the thoughts and philosophy of Mr. Altaf Hussain, and joined the ranks and files of Muttahida Quami Movement after they observed and watched the peaceful democratic struggle of MQM. They announced this joining formally at Khursheed Begum Memorial Hall, adjacent to the headquarters of MQM, Nine Zero, in a meeting with the members of MQM Coordination Committee Mr. Ashfaq Manghi, Dr. Nusrat, and Provincial Minister Shabbir Ahmed Qaimi. The delegation of JSQM workers, who joined MQM, discussed in detail the overall political situation of Sindh with the members of Coordination Committee and pronounced the services of the leadership of MQM and the developmental projects in rural and urban areas of Sindh, altruistic and without prejudice. They said, the provision of the platform of MQM to the deprived people of the country, and organizing them on this platform, is a historical accomplishment of Mr. Altaf Hussain. They further said that the message of justice has spread throughout Sindh. At this occasion Mr. Ashfaq Manghi, Dr. Nusrat, and provincial minister Shabbir Ahmed Qaimi congratulated to those who joined MQM and welcome them on board. They said that MQM is practically struggling for the elimination of the obsolete feudal system from the country and the philosophy of MQM is getting deeper places in the hearts of the common men of the country. They added that very soon the people of Pakistan will hammer the last nail in the coffin of the feudal system.
