

More Than 50 Workers From Pasbaan And Functional Muslim League Join Muttahida Quami Movement.

Karachi, August 03, 2007: More than 50 Pasbaan and Functional Muslim League workers including young and old, from Zafar town and Qadafi town of Bin Qasim, joined enthusiastically Muttahida Quami Movement after realizing and appreciating the Leader of the Movement Mr. Altaf Hussain's philosophy of Realism and Practicalism. The proclamation of this joining came in a meeting arranged by MQM's Punjabi Pukhtoon Organizing Committee at Bin Qasim. The meeting was attended by In-charge, MQM Punjabi Pukhtoon Organizing Committee, Sardar Khan and members of the committee. The political workers who joined Muttahida Quami Movement expressed their emotions when they said that MQM is serving the oppressed, browbeaten, and exploited people of Pakistan, and people from all over the country appreciate and admire MQM's social and welfare activities. They further said that MQM has proved with their rescue, recovery and rehabilitation efforts for the victims of earthquake disaster in NWFP and Kashmir, and victims of Cyclone and heavy rains in Sindh and Balochistan, that MQM believes in service to the ailing humanity without prejudice to color, creed, and ethnicity. They reassured that they are with Mr. Altaf Hussain in his struggle in the cause of justice and would do their best to propagate the wisdom and message of Mr. Hussain. The In-charge, MQM Punjabi Pukhtoon Organizing Committee warmly welcomed the workers of Pasbaan and Functional League who joined MQM, commended their decision, and congratulated them on their decision of joining MQM.
