

Even The Top Brass Of The Police Force Is Not Aware Of The Laws: Chief Justice

Islamabad, October 23, 2007: The Chief Justice, Justice Iftikhar Mohammad Chaudhry has remarked that even the top official in the police force are not aware of the laws and its details. At the hearing of the suo moto case of the assault on attorneys and journalists on September 29, 2007, the Chief Justice wrote in his remarks that even the top police official are not fully apprised of the laws. He said one day prior to September 29, all the roads were blocked to the Supreme Court and even two judges as well as the judicial staff was unable to reach the court in time. At this point the supreme court ordered for the production of all the endorsed cases for the assault on attorneys and journalists and the record of the injured people brought in PIMS on the next hearing date. The hearing of the suo moto case in Supreme Court adjourned to October 31, 2007.
