

Three-Day Reception Camp At Nankana Sahib To Help & Guide The Pilgrims From Christian Community.

MQM Wants Protection Of Rights Of The Religious Minorities Who Live In Pakistan: Dr. Abdul Qadir Khanzada, Talking To The Pilgrims While Visiting The Camp.

Nankana, September 08, 2007: MQM is holding a three-day reception camp at Mariam Abad, Nankan Sahib to help and guide the pilgrims of Christian community who are attending a religious congregation. The workers of MQM and the volunteers of Khidmat e Khalq Foundation are present at the reception camp all the time, while cold water fountains have also been installed for the pilgrims. In the meantime the Federal Minister for Religious Affairs, Dr. Abdul Qadir Khanzada, who belongs to MQM, visited the camp at Nankana Sahib. At this occasion, the organizer of MQM Punjab Mr. Amanullah Khan, members of MQM Minority Affairs Committee Mr. Stephen Asif, Mr. Shahbaz Yousuf, Mr. Younus John, Mr. Christopher Annan, Ms. Shama Gulzar, District Organizer of Sheikhpura, Nankana Sahib Rana Naseer and Mr. Mohammad Ali Jawwad were also accompanying the Federal Minister. Talking to the pilgrims and participants of the religious congregation at the sacred place of Christian community Mariam at Nankan Sahib, The Federal Minister for Religious Affairs, Mr. Abdul Qadir Khanzada said that MQM deems the members of religious minorities in Pakistan to be equal status as of other citizens of Pakistan and wants their rights be protected. he further said that MQM is the only political party of the country which not only protected the rights of religious minorities of Pakistan, it also elected middle class people from the minorities and sent them to the Assemblies. Prior to this the Incharge MQM Punjab Organizing Committee Mr. Amanullah Khan said that wherever the message and philosophy of MQM is spreading, the minorities living at those places are feeling secure. He said that the way the leader of the movement Mr. Altaf Hussain has raised the voice for minority rights is unparalleled.